Elizabeth Moro for PA State Rep in the 160th

The Presidential race will undoubtedly capture most of the attention in 2024. Re-electing Joe Biden and Kamala Harris remains an essential goal, but other races also deserve our attention and support. While all of the races listed to the left are important, the race where WTB is most involved is the contest for state rep in the 160th legislative district.

Our district for the PA House of Representatives has been in Republican hands for too long. Flipping the 160th this year is crucial for our hopes to maintain and secure Democratic control of the PA House.

We have in Elizabeth Moro a candidate who is a good fit to our R-leaning district. As a business owner and real-estate broker, she will be an effective challenger to the incumbent Craig Williams. Her positions in favor of public education funding, reproductive rights, and sensible gun regulation contrast with those of Williams. She was also an active participant in efforts to preserve Crebilly Farm as open space whereas Williams was active only when it was time to take credit for state funding.

How You Can Help

WTB Dems depend on their volunteers to greet voters at the polls on Election Day, to canvass our neighborhoods in support of our candidates, and to help with mailing, phoning and texting efforts to get out the vote. We also need committee people in some of our precincts where there are vacancies.
